And by the way, if any of you are motoring through New York State, look up Leslie Brower, who dispenses tea and hospitality at Merryman's Tea House, Knox, N. Y. We hear she has a most charming place and hearty welcome for 1912ers.

SMITH COLLEGE
CLASS OF 1912

April 20, 1933.

Dear 1912:

Party at Knox

A group of Albany young women motored to Knox recently for tea at the Merryman's Tea House. In the party were Miss Jane McKeon, Miss Agnes Gordon, Miss Mary Gordon, Miss Katherine Boylan, Miss Margaret McNamara and Miss Peggy Sullivan of Brooklyn, who is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. M. F. Dollard of Van Rensselaer Boulevard.
